INTRODUCTION

This AML manual (the “Manual”) summarises the main rules, policies and procedures that apply to [company’s name] [Limited/LLP] (the “Firm”) under the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds Regulations 2017 (the “MLR”).

It also provides in the Appendix template KYC forms to carry on customer due diligence (“CDD”) on the Firm’s customers.

The Firm’s staff must read this Manual carefully and comply with its provisions at all times. In case of doubt, the Firm’s compliance officer ([INSERT NAME]) (the “Compliance Officer”) must be consulted.

This Manual is not intended to be comprehensive and should not be used as a substitute for reading the full rules and guidance contained in the MLR and any other laws and regulations that apply to the Firm.

This version of the Manual was approved by the [directors/managing members] of the Firm on [INSERT DATE].

Any reference in this Manual to a “Regulation” is a reference to the relevant regulation contained in the MLR, the current version of which can be found at the following link: <https://www.legislation.gov.uk/uksi/2017/692>.

Any reference in this Manual to a “Schedule” is a reference to the relevant schedule contained in the MLR.

CHAPTER 1 – APPLICATION AND DEFINITIONS

1.1 APPLICATION

The Firm is subject to the MLR because it is a “relevant person” acting in the course business in the United Kingdom.

The Firm is a “relevant person” because it:

CHAPTER 2 – RISK ASSESSMENT AND CONTROLS

2.1 GENERAL RISK ASSESSMENT

The Firm must take appropriate steps to identify and assess the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing to which its business is subject.

In carrying out this risk assessment, the Firm must take into account:

- (1) information made available to them by the supervisory authority under Regulations 17(9) (Risk assessment by supervisory authorities) and 47 (Duties of supervisory authorities: information); and
- (2) risk factors including those relating to:
  - (a) its customers;
  - (b) the countries or geographic areas in which it operates;
  - (c) its products or services;
  - (d) its transactions; and
  - (e) its delivery channels.

In deciding what steps are appropriate, the Firm must take into account the size and nature of its business.

The Firm must keep an up-to-date record in writing of all the steps it has taken, unless its supervisory authority notifies it in writing that such a record is not required.

The Firm must provide the risk assessment it has prepared, the information on which that risk assessment was based and any record required to be kept, to its supervisory authority on request.<sup>9</sup>

The Firm last conducted its risk assessment on [DATE]. A summary of the Firm's risk assessment is as follows:

- (a) main risk factors relating to the Firm's customers: [FIRM TO COMPLETE E.G. POLITICALLY EXPOSED PERSONS, NON-FACE TO FACE INVESTORS, ETC.];
